Last week, Singapore Christian Home held their Final Volunteer Appreciation Event for IVD 2013.

This time, they said thank you to their volunteers from Wesley WSCS (Wesley Women's Society of Christian Service), who have been bringing joy to the residents with sing-a-longs and bible story sharing sessions since the home's Jalan Tan Tock Seng days! These volunteers are truly dedicated and even come an hour before activities start, to practice their song items.

Last Saturday, the volunteers were under the impression that they were there to perform for the residents. One volunteer, a teacher from Nan Hua Secondary school, brought her students to perform with the group. Their unique performance of Anklungs and harps had residents captivated!

After the performance, the volunteers were surprised with gifts from the residents. A picture says a thousand word, so check out the collage below to find out more about the event!

Thanks to SCH for the very thoughtful appreciation events. These events have reflected the true spirit of IVD, and it's no wonder you have such long-serving Volunteers :)
